Part III DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant(s)

1. This action is responsive to the following communications: amendment filed on October 21, 2003
2. This application has been examined. Claims 1-8 are pending.
3. The Group and/or Art Unit location of your application in the PTO has changed. To aid in correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Group Art Unit 2111.

Specification

4. The title of the invention is accepted

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

6. Claims 1-2, 6-7, 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Dunstan et al. (US No. 6,532,506).

In regard to claims 1, 6, 8, Dunstan et al. disclose the method for exchanging of data in messages between at least two users connected by a bus system and having separate time bases comprising the step of causing the at least two users to transmit data via the bus system in the messages (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 9, line 20); driving the first user to control the message with the first timer repeatedly transmits a reference message (i.e. data message) including a first time information regarding the time base of the first user (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 10, line 36); driving the second user to control the message with the second timer with a second time information regarding the time base of the second user (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 10, line 36); ascertaining a correction value (i.e. negotiating value) from the first time information and the second time information; driving the second user to adapt to the correction value (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 10, line 36).

In regard to claim 2, Dunstan et al. disclose the step of subdividing the specific time interval into timing windows of the specificable length (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 10, line 36); transmitting messages including the data in the timing windows (see col. 5, lines 15-42).

In regard to claim 7, Dunstan et al. disclose the omitting a cyclical message transfer in on timing window of one of the first cycle and a second cycle (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 10, line 36); and transmitting arbitrating messages in the at least one timing window (see col. 8, line 16 through col. 10, line 36).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Amendment

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2, 6-8 have been considered but claims 1-8 are deemed to be moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

8. Applicant's arguments, see pages 3-4, filed October 21, 2003, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-2, 6-8 under 35 USC § 102 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Dunstan et al.

Conclusion

9. Claims 1-2, 6-8 are rejected. Claims 3-5 are objected.

10. The prior arts made of record and not relied upon are considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Larson et al. (US No. 6,370,593) disclose an apparatus for multiplexing bus interfaces on a computer expansion.
